FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 2, 2004

Atlanta, Georgia

To meet the increased concern about latex sensitivity, Labtron® has introduced the Labstar™ Latex-Free Deluxe Sphygmomanometer. Each unit features a calibrated Accumax™ nylon cuff, available in blue, black or grey. The color coordinated manometer is backed by a lifetime calibration warranty and reliably measures pressure from 20mmHg to 300mmHg. The deluxe inflation system includes a two-tube latex-free bladder, deluxe air release and end valves; and a latex-free inflation bulb. It comes complete with zippered carry case. Available only through Graham-Field Health Products' network of 2,000 authorized dealers.
