Graham-Field and National Seating & Mobility: Partners in Quality DME

February 1, 2008 • Atlanta, GA:

Graham-Field Health Products and National Seating & Mobility (NSM), two of the best-known names in homecare/rehab, have joined forces to bring the NSM community Graham-Field's respected mobility aids, bathroom safety devices, and other Graham-Field brand products.

“Teaming with NSM advances the growth of our brand identity at the clinical level. GF brands such as Lumex, Everest & Jennings, and Grafcó have been industry standards for many years. Graham-Field's attention to quality and safety features is stronger than ever. We take pride in offering a considerable breadth of products to enhance our clients' Quality of Life”, stated Allison Stackpole, Director of Homecare Business Development.

National Seating & Mobility, headquartered in Franklin TN, is North America's largest dedicated provider of rehab products and services. NSM's national network of professional Rehab Technology Suppliers serves its clients, therapists and physicians from facilities throughout North America, providing customized wheelchairs and adaptive seating systems for individuals diagnosed with permanent or long-term loss of mobility.

NSM serves the severely physically challenged, especially children. Since more than half of NSM clients are pediatric, typical diagnoses include birth defects, cerebral palsy, spina bifida and muscular dystrophy. NSM also specializes in providing custom seating and mobility systems for teens, adults, and seniors challenged with severe trauma, disease, and skeletal disorders.
