October 23, 2006 • Atlanta, GA:

Graham-Field Health Products is pleased to introduce the Everest Lite Power Wheelchair by Everest & Jennings, shown here. The E&J Everest Lite is a sporty, feature-rich globe-trotter that disassembles quickly and easily—without tools—into four components that weigh less than 35 lb. each. The Everest Lite features flip-back, adjustable width arms; one-piece, flip-up footboard; black seat and back; 250 lb. weight capacity; and limited lifetime warranty on frame. Available with red or blue cowl. State-of-the-art, programmable PGDT™ VR2™ controls provide excellent maneuverability. The Everest Lite even includes batteries. Way to go!

The Everest family of power wheelchairs also includes the Everest CRT Captain Seat model. Everest & Jennings wheelchairs have been in continuous production since 1933, when Herbert Everest and Harry Jennings invented the first lightweight, metal folding wheelchair.
