For Immediate Release:

Graham-Field Introduces the Everest & Jennings® Metro® IC3 with Nylon Upholstery

January 27, 2006 • Atlanta, GA:

Graham-Field Health Products is pleased to announce that the Everest & Jennings® Metro IC3 manual wheelchair, shown here, is now available with nylon upholstery. The Metro IC3's new black, padded, reinforced, nylon upholstery sports a sleek, non-institutional look and a softer, more comfortable touch. Replacement upholstery is available in both leatherette and nylon. Check Graham-Field's website, www.grahamfield.com, for details, and contact your Graham-Field dealer for options.

The Metro IC3 is a member of the Everest & Jennings® IC (Industry Compatible) line, developed to provide manual wheelchair users with a wider choice of the many after-market backs, arms, upholstery, front rigging, and accessories available today. The versatile IC line also includes the Vista® IC and the Metro IC4. Everest & Jennings® wheelchairs have been in continuous production since 1933, when Everest & Jennings invented the first folding wheelchair.
